

NO OIL DRILLING IN FLORIDA

join hands with us

HANDS ACROSS THE SAND & BEACH CLEANUP

Lake Worth Public Beach - 12:00pm - 2/13/2010

YOU have an opportunity to show your opposition to oil drilling as close as 3 to 10 miles off your coast. This movement will be made of people of all walks of life and will cross political affiliations. This movement is not about politics; it is about protection of our shoreline, our tourism, our valuable properties and our way of life. Let us share our knowledge, energies and passion with Hands Across The Sand to protect our coastline and waterways from the devastating environmental effects of oil exploration and support industries. Come out and show your support on SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 2010 as the Surfrider Foundation holds a beach cleanup and hosts this event. Hold hands forming lines in the sand against oil drilling in our coastal waters. This event will take place RAIN or SHINE. Leave only your footprints. Further information is available at www.surfriderpbc.org. The Lake Worth Public Beach is located at Lake Avenue and South Ocean Boulevard (A1A). After party will be sponsored in part by Slow Food Glades starting at 3pm at Havana Hideout in Lake Worth, with food and drink specials and raffle. PLEASE WEAR BLACK to symbolize the effect of oil on our beaches.
